Fulbright Scholarship Student Panel

Monday, April 1, 2:00 p.m.
Shenandoah Room, Mountainlair

Interested in pursuing a Fulbright Scholarship? Come to an information session and panel sponsored by WVU ASPIRE Office. Space is limited so be sure to RSVP on ASPIRE's website!

The Next Generation of Leaders: Students as Champions for Change

Tuesday, April 2, 5:00 p.m to 6:00 p.m.
Erickson Alumni Center

- Open to ALL graduate students
- Preceded by a reception from 3:45 p.m. to 4:45 p.m.

This session will feature representatives from the National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine's Board on Higher Education and Workforce and the Committee on Women in Science, Engineering, and Medicine who will discuss the role of students in leading institutional change. The session will draw from the recent NAS reports: Graduate STEM Education in the 21st Century and The Integration of Humanities and Arts with Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine in Higher Education.

Three-Minute Thesis Grand Finale

Thursday, April 4, 6:00 p.m.
Mountainlair Ballrooms

An 80,000 word Ph.D. thesis would typically take hours to present, but competitors will only be given three minutes to win over the judges and the audience. Come out to support your fellow graduate students and participate in deciding who wins the People's Choice Award!
